Two Different Worlds

John Gray's Men are from Mars, Women are from Venus (1992) is said to be useful for helping men and women understand each other.

In this popular book, John Gray sees people as being in two big groups — men and women. He thinks they are living in two very different worlds, speaking two very different languages. That is why men and women do not agree with each other and easily get angry. He says that by reading the book we would learn more about all those differences, and would understand each other better then.

Dear Jenny,

How was your vacation? Did you have a good time in the USA? I went to Japan with my sisters, Patty and Jane. We got on the airplane at 6:30 and got there about four hours later. First, we went to a small village. There were many lovely houses. Jane took lots of pictures. In the afternoon, we took a boat to an island. We hiked around the island and also enjoyed the beautiful trees and flowers there very much.

The next morning, we went to an amusement park. We took a train around the park. We played in the park all day and had a great time.

On the last day, we visited a famous building in the morning. After that, we got some drinks on some busy streets. Patty got a lot of cookies and candy. We flew back home in the evening and we had a great vacation.

Maybe you can go with us next time. See you next week and wish you also have fun during your vacation!

Love,

Penny
